10th Annual Conference
Australasian Association for Progressive and Alternative Education

Date: Friday 30th September - Sunday 2nd October 2011

Venue: Currambena Primary and Preschool
207 Longueville Road
Lane Cove
Sydney
NSW 2066
Websites: www.currambena.nsw.edu.au

Theme: The Four R's - Relevance. Renewal, Reality and Relationships

Currambena School is excited to host the 10th Annual Conference of AAPAE. AAPAE came about as an idea to connect and support alternative and progressive learning environments over ten years ago. The first AAPAE Conference was held at Currambena so it is an honour for Currambena to host this 10th conference. We will be posing and exploring many questions that involve alternative education right now. Come and have your say, put forward your ideas and connect with others.

Programme: We will kick off the conference with an evening social at Currambena School on Friday 30th September 2011. The conference will then run over Saturday 1st and Sunday 2nd October 2011. There will be a mix of listening, talking, exploring, hands-on experiences, free time to arrange your own sessions and lots of delicious food.

We will engage with people such as author Monty 'Boori' Pryor; ex-student and now psychology lecturer, Marc de Rosnay; ex-student Patrick Price and Karan Goyala from Centre for Learning and Children's Rights and The Heartlands Children's Academy in Nepal and Peter Lehner, choirmaster and singing teacher.

A more detailed programme will be put on the AAPAE and Currambena websites during August.

If you wish to hold a workshop or speak at the conference please contact Cecelia Bradley (AAPAE President) at cecelia.b@bigpond.com or Wendy Pettit (Currambena School) at wendyp@currambena.nsw.edu.au
